Contract Terms and Conditions

This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Arkansas, without regard to its choice of law principles. The terms and conditions of the room and board contract with the University of Arkansas are as follows:

I. Eligibility and On Campus Residency Requirement

A. ALL SINGLE FRESHMEN UNDER TWENTY-ONE (21) YEARS OF AGE ARE REQUIRED TO LIVE ON CAMPUS IN A RESIDENCE HALL OR IN THEIR PARENT'S OR LEGAL GUARDIAN'S PERMANENT HOME. EXCEPTIONS MAY BE GRANTED BY UNIVERSITY HOUSING FOR EXTREME CIRCUMSTANCES THAT PREVENT THE INDIVIDUAL FROM LIVING ON CAMPUS.

B. To be eligible to live in a University Housing Facility, a person must be a student enrolled in and attending at least nine (9) undergraduate hours or six (6) graduate hours for credit each semester on campus at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. If space is available, exceptions to the minimum credit hour requirement may be made on a semester-by-semester basis for students who are completing degree requirements, upon written request to University Housing with confirmation of their status by their faculty advisor.

C. The University reserves the right not to contract with persons who are currently violating or have previously violated the terms and conditions of a housing contract or other University rules or regulations, or who have a past due balance with the University.

II. Contract Period

A. The period of this contract is an entire Academic Year as defined above.

B. If the student contracts after the first day of classes, the student will be charged from the date the contract is signed.

C. Students granted permission to check in before the beginning of the academic year as defined above are subject to the terms of this contract and may be subject to an additional charge.

D. Meal service will begin with lunch on the first day the assigned hall is designated for official opening and end with dinner on the last day of final exams for each semester. Meal service will not be available during Thanksgiving, semester, and spring breaks.

E. Only students in Academic Year Facilities (as defined above) may occupy their Student Assignment during University breaks. Persons living in any other University Housing Facility may not occupy their Student Assignment during Thanksgiving Break (5:00 PM, Tuesday, November 25, 2014 to noon, Sunday, November 30, 2014), semester (5:00 PM, Friday, December 19, 2014 to noon, Thursday, January 8, 2015) or spring (5:00 PM, Friday, March 20, 2015 to noon, Sunday, March 29, 2015) breaks. These dates are subject to change based on University announced modifications to the University calendar. Limited housing during these breaks may be available at a designated location for an additional charge to other University Housing students who request such accommodations and who meet University Housing designated criteria. University Housing cannot guarantee that break housing will be available.

F. Residents graduating at the end of the fall semester who live in an Academic Year Facility must vacate their Student Assignment by NOON, Sunday, December 21, 2014

G. Students are expected to vacate their Student Assignment within twenty-four (24) hours after their last final exam at the end of each semester. Students involved in spring semester commencement activities and other students needing an exception to this requirement must obtain approval in advance from University Housing.

H. The last day to check into a Student Assignment is 5:00 PM on the first day of classes unless special arrangements are made with University Housing. Contracts of students not checked-in by this time are subject to cancellation in accordance with Section VI, part D.

III. Charges and Payments

A. An Advance Payment (as defined above) of Two Hundred Forty Dollars ($240) must be paid with this contract. The $240 Advance Payment is required even if the student is or will be on a scholarship or other financial aid that covers room and board. Forty Dollars ($40) of the Advance Payment is not refundable. The remaining Two Hundred Dollars ($200) of the Advance Payment will be applied to University Housing spring room charges.

B. If the University is unable to assign the student to a space including overflow/temporary housing as stated in Section IV, part A., Two Hundred Dollars ($200) of the Advance Payment will be credited to the student's account.

C. The charges for room and board vary according to the University Housing Facility, the Student Assignment, and the assigned meal plan. A listing of room and board rates, which is fully incorporated herein by reference, will be available no later than July 15, 2014, on the University Housing website: <http://housing.uark.edu>, subject to receiving approval from the Board of Trustees of the University of Arkansas. The University reserves the right to raise room and board rates at any time upon thirty (30) days notice.

D. Room and board payments may be made at one time for each semester or as arranged through the University Treasurer's Office. Payment in full for each semester or the first installment payment must be received by the due date as designated on the University Billing Statement. Students are responsible for paying all room and board charges for the entire term of the contract.

E. Without limiting its right to seek other remedies, the University may withdraw meal privileges for failure to pay room and board charges by the required date(s) or for failure to complete an official room change when directed. If meal privileges are withdrawn, the amount charged on the room and board contract will not be reduced.

F. Students must comply with the administrative checkout procedure whenever they checkout of their Student Assignment. A One Hundred Twenty-Five Dollar ($125) administrative charge will be assessed for failure to comply with the administrative checkout procedures or for a late checkout after posted facility closing hours. This charge is in addition to any individual and/or community charges assessed for damages.

G. Administrative charges assessed for cancellation of the contract by the student are set out in Section V.

H. Charges may be assessed for damage to or loss of University property both in student spaces and in public areas. Charges for damage to public areas may be prorated to all residents of the hall or area. Charges may be assessed for damage to student spaces that is discovered within two (2) business days after the student has checked out, if during the academic year, provided the space has not been reoccupied. At the end of the spring semester charges may be assessed for damage to student spaces that is discovered within four (4) business days after the student has checked out.

IV. Student Assignment and Meal Plans

A. This contract is for available space. The University reserves the right to make and alter the Student Assignment and roommate assignments. Race, national origin, disability, religion or any other basis prohibited by federal or state law shall not be considered in making roommate assignments. When necessary, the University reserves the right to assign the contractee to alternate housing (whether short-term or long-term) at either an on-campus or off-campus location(s).

B. Student Assignments and roommate assignments can only be made after completion and receipt of the contract and Two Hundred Forty Dollar ($240) advance payment. Forty Dollars ($40) of the advance payment is non-refundable and Two Hundred Dollars ($200) will be applied to the student's spring housing charges.

C. The University reserves the right to determine, designate, change and/or restrict the utilization of University Housing-managed facilities and/or areas within the facilities and grounds and to make and/or change Student Assignments and roommate assignments accordingly at any time.

D. Any student desiring (a) specific roommate(s) may not assign or be assigned with those roommate(s) until all desired roommate(s) submit a completed room and board contract and the required Two Hundred Forty Dollars ($240) Advance Payment.

E. Housing assignments are personal, non-transferable and non-assignable. Students may make room and hall or apartment changes to their Student Assignment (during designated dates and times) using Shop-N-Swap until June 26, 2014.

F. After University Housing Facilities open in August and January, students may request room and/or roommate changes within their current hall until the first day of classes in the fall or spring semester. The Coordinator for Residence Education and University Housing must approve any room and/or roommate changes within the same hall prior to the change.

G. In order to allow assignment of students housed in temporary/overflow housing, requests to change Student Assignment to a different facility may not be made until the eleventh day of classes.

H. The University reserves the right to make changes to Student Assignments and/or roommate assignments at any time, and to assess an additional charge for single occupancy when only one student with a double room or apartment contract occupies a room or apartment. The University also reserves the right to reassign the student at any time due to facility changes, roommate conflicts, disciplinary action and/or an emergency or casualty that renders the student's room unsafe or otherwise uninhabitable.

I. Meal plans are personal, non-transferable and non-assignable. Meal plan changes decreasing a student's meal plan can ONLY be made through the eleventh (11th) day of classes each semester. Meal plan changes increasing a student's meal plan can be made at any time prior to the end of the semester. Requests must be made in writing and signed by the student or sent to the central office of University Housing by the student using their official University of Arkansas email account. The availability of flex dollars may be limited until after the eleventh (11th) day of classes each semester.

V. Cancellation or Termination of the contract by the student

A. Students may not cancel or terminate this contract except as stated herein without prior written approval by University Housing.

B. Before the start of the Contract Period students requesting to cancel their contract may use the University Housing website or submit a signed cancellation request in writing to University Housing. Students who are not required to live on campus and who have received approval from University Housing before the start of the Contract Period, or who are not attending the University, may cancel or terminate this contract and receive a refund of the balance of their Advance Payment except for the Forty Dollar ($40) non-refundable portion of the Advance Payment according to the terms/schedule listed below:

1. The University may retain Forty Dollars ($40) if the contract is cancelled before March 5, 2014. The amount refunded would be Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

2. The University may retain One Hundred Forty Dollars ($140) if the contract is cancelled before May 6, 2014. The amount refunded would be One Hundred Dollars ($100).

3. The University may retain One Hundred Ninety Dollars ($190.00) if the contract is cancelled before June 23, 2014. The amount refunded would be Fifty Dollars ($50).

4. The University may retain all of the Two Hundred Forty Dollars ($240) if the contract cancellation is received after June 23, 2014.

5. Students who contract after June 23, 2014 will not receive any refund of the Two Hundred Forty Dollar ($240) Advance Payment if they cancel their contract unless they meet the guidelines in Section V, C.

C. All advance payments will be refunded only if the student submits written proof with the cancellation request that the cancellation is for one of the following reasons:

1. Denial of admission to the University.

2. Physical incapacity or disability requiring withdrawal from the University.

D. After the student has checked in and received a key OR after the meal plan associated with the contract has been used, the contract may only be terminated by the student for official withdrawal from the University. The student shall submit a Statement of Non-Enrollment. If the student re-enrolls during the original contract term their cancellation is voided and all terms, conditions and charges will be reinstated.

E. In the event of withdrawal and termination of the contract after occupancy, room and applicable meal charges may be prorated according to the following.

1. Room and applicable meal charges (except for the $240 Advance Payment) will be prorated as of the date the student officially checks out of the residence hall, if check out is prior to the 61st day after the hall opening in the fall or spring semester (October 20, 2014 in the fall and March 10, 2015 in the spring). The Two Hundred Forty Dollar ($240) Advance Payment will be retained by the University even if withdrawal/contract termination is due to graduation.

2. If withdrawal and/or checkout are on or after October 20, 2014 in the fall or on or after March 10, 2015 in the spring, the contractee will be responsible for room and board charges for the remainder of the term and no refunds or adjustments to charges will be made.

VI. Cancellation or Termination of the contract by the University

A. The University may terminate this contract and require the student to immediately vacate the University Housing Facility for the following reasons: (1) Failure to pay any payments or charges by the required date; (2) Official University disciplinary action requiring removal of the student from the University Housing Facility; (3) Failure to be registered for and attending the required number of credit hours; (4) Violation of University Housing Facility or University policy, rules or regulations, including but not limited to, the regulations set out in the 2014- 2015 University Housing Residence Handbook available at <http://housing.uark.edu> and/or the 2014- 2015 University Student Handbook, which are fully incorporated herein by reference; (5) Failure to maintain the Student Assignment in a safe and sanitary condition; (6) Violation of the terms of this contract; (7) An emergency or casualty; or (8) If the student is a safety threat to himself or herself or to others.

B. The University may cancel or terminate this contract for convenience for any reason, by giving the student thirty (30) days' notice. Notice shall be deemed sufficient when it is deposited in the U.S. Mail and addressed to the student's campus address and/or permanent address on record with the University.

C. Failure to vacate any University Housing Facility or Student Assignment upon notice of termination of the contract by the University or the expiration of the contract period ("holding over") is prohibited and will result in double rent charges for the period of time that the student remains in the assigned space after the contract has been terminated or expired. Student waives all statutory rights of ejectment.

D. Contracts of non-freshmen who do not check-in to their assignment by 5:00 p.m. on the first day of classes will be cancelled and the student charged Fifty Percent (50%) of their assigned fall room charges.

E. Contracts of students covered by the on-campus residency requirement who do not check-in to their assignment by 5:00 p.m. on the first day of classes will be cancelled only if the student no longer meets eligibility requirements (see Section I.) Contracts of students covered by the on-campus residency requirement who do not check-in to their assignment by 5:00 p.m. on the first day of classes who still meet eligibility requirements will not be cancelled and the contractee may be held responsible for all contract charges.

VII. Casualty or Emergency

A. All reasonable efforts are made to protect University Housing Facilities and residents from fire, theft, or other major casualty. However, the University is not responsible for loss or damage to students' personal property for any cause or reason. Moreover, the University is not responsible for any injuries, including but not limited to death to residents or guests, or damage to their property that may result from misuse of the premises or arising from any act that violates this contract or University policy. Students are strongly encouraged to obtain renters' insurance to insure their property.

B. If the Student's Assignment should become uninhabitable due to fire or other casualty, the University will attempt to relocate the student in University housing if available. If the University is unable to relocate the student to other University housing, then the University may terminate this agreement.

C. The University shall not be responsible for any failure to provide housing or meals in the event conditions arise which are not wholly within its control (i.e. acts of God, fire, strike, lockouts, terrorism, riots, etc.).

VIII. Abandonment of Personal Property

Personal property left in a Student Assignment or storage area after the resident has moved out, whether by proper checkout or improper checkout, shall be deemed to have been abandoned and will be removed and disposed of at the contractee's expense. The University shall not be responsible or liable for any losses or damages to any abandoned property.

IX. Signs

Signs are subject to all published University policies; in particular, signs of an advertising or commercial nature may not be displayed in any window or exterior surface of the Student Assignment, University Housing Facility, or other locations.

X. Pets

Except as required by law, all pets (for example dogs, cats, birds, rodents, reptiles) are prohibited from University Housing Facilities. Small, harmless fish are permitted, but these must be removed from the facility during breaks and at the end of the contract period. Guests may not bring cats, dogs, or other pets to the area while visiting. Strays should not be encouraged to remain in the area. Any animal found in the area will be presumed to be a stray and may be removed. Failure to adhere to this provision may result in immediate termination of the housing contract.

XI. Right of Entry

A. Students have a reasonable right of privacy in their assigned room and their belongings. However, University Housing Facilities, rooms, and Student Assignments may be entered by University officials or staff in cases of emergency, for maintenance, pest control, safety inspection, or when University officials have reasonable grounds to believe that a student may be violating University policy, University regulations, or the law.

B. In order to provide better health standards in University Housing Facilities, the University takes periodic pest control measures. Residents will be notified when regular spraying, fogging, or other treatment of Student Assignments will occur and the University reserves the right to exercise its Right of Entry in such cases.

C. Requests for maintenance made by residents for work or repairs in their Student Assignment grant University personnel the Right of Entry without notification to the resident.

D. Rooms/apartments may be periodically inspected for health/safety violations. Violations may result in administrative charges, conduct action and/or the termination of the University Housing contract.

XII. Guests

Residents are responsible for the behavior of their guests. The University reserves the right to restrict the number of nights any non-resident may spend as an overnight guest in any University Housing Facility. University Housing reserves the right to restrict access by guests who have violated university policy and/or present a threat to the safety or security of facility residents. All applicable policies regarding guests must be adhered to. (See Hall Visitation in the 2014-2015 University Housing Student Handbook)

XIII. Residence Hall Government

All residents (except those assigned to Apartments or Managed Facilities) are members of the student government association of the residence hall to which they are assigned. All hall residents are members of Residents' Interhall Congress (RIC). Through its hall government, each residence hall is responsible for developing supplemental policies and regulations pertaining to the behavior of students living in that hall, subject to other University policies and with the approval of University Housing. All hall residents are subject to the approved policies and regulations adopted by the residence hall student government association and the RIC.
