Choose this LLC if...

You are a first or second year student in the Air Force ROTC (AFROTC) program.

You want to live in the same residence hall and form study groups with other students in the AFROTC program.

You want to participate in extracurricular activities that connect learning in and out of the classroom.

You want to experience career exploration with faculty, students, and advisors.

Our Purpose

The residential AFROTC LLC is a group of male and female first or second-year students who are engaged in the curricula of the AFROTC LLC and several co-curricular activities. AFROTC students are often involved in leadership activities, such as serving the VA Hospital in Fayetteville or the City of Springdale. Students are also very active on campus by participating in Color Guard for most athletic events. Further, they are involved with each other socially by rock climbing, organizing cookouts, or playing paintball. Students in the AFROTC LLC can be part of any academic major at the University of Arkansas.

Benefits

Benefits of participating in this LLC include:

Getting to know faculty and staff in a small setting.

Creating connections right away with peers who share the same interests.

Becoming involved at the University of Arkansas.
